

DISCLAIMER

General

This website is property of TOUCHED BY NATURE TRAVEL, with registered offices located at Bonnie Braes Farm, R536, Kiepersol, Hazyview, South Africa and with company reg. no. 2021/140079/07 (hereafter to be called "Touched by nature").

Conditions

All use of the website is subject to these usage conditions. Each user is expected to have taken note of the conditions below, to understand these and to accept these integrally, unconditionally, and irrevocably.

The user also gives permission to process the provided personal details as stipulated below. Any invalidity of a provision, due to conflict with mandatory law, does not diminish the enforceability of all other stipulated provisions.

Touched by nature reserves the right to modify these general usage conditions at any moment.

A user can use our website without providing personal details. As a result thereof, it is nevertheless possible that certain functions or parts of the website will only be completely accessible if you share certain personal details.

If the personal details are provided, the user guarantees the correctness and completeness thereof. Providing incorrect details or details which belong to third parties can lead to a temporary or permanent, complete, or partial denial of access to our website.

Liability limitation

We strive for the information and notifications on our website to be as correct as possible, but we can never guarantee the correctness or suitability of the notifications or information for any which use. As such, we cannot be held liable for this in any way.

We can also not be held liable for any decision or action taken by the user based on the information provided or information about users or third parties, nor can we be held liable for errors and mistakes.

We cannot be held liable for direct, indirect or any other damages caused by incorrectness, incompleteness, omission of information or notification, nor can we be held liable for loss or damages of any nature which are the result of suspension, interruptions, disruptions (technical), delay, difficult accessibility and/or termination of the accessibility to the entire or partial website or viruses or other harmful elements present on the website.

If the user encounters errors, viruses or other harmful elements on the website, he is requested to inform Touched by nature hereof per email: info@touchedbynature.travel, so the necessary measures can be taken.

Touched by nature recommends the user to at least install firewalls, antivirus software and other necessary security software on his computer to prevent any damage.

Touched by nature reserves the right to suspend or terminate the website in its entirety or partially, at any moment, without motivation and without prior notification.

This disclaimer of course does not apply to the exclusion of liability in matters for which one cannot indemnify himself according to the general provisions of law, particularly damages flowing from intentional and gross negligence in the information provided.
